Even though I was very small, my Aunt Alana told me I was special.

One day, my brothers
were playing jump
rope. They wouldn't let me play.

Instead, they tied me up and tossed me into the old well.

I couldn't climb out!
I yelled and yelled,
but nobody heard me!

James and Peter
came looking for
a white donkey.
Farmer John
thought of me.

“Ollie, what are you doing down the old well?” Elizabeth asked.

I was chosen
to carry
Jesus into Jerusalem.

Everyone
cheered.
I guess
I was
special!

Jesus appeared to both me and Elizabeth.

“Death has no
power over
me!” he said.

Jesus went to Heaven, leaving
his deciples
to continue
his work.

Farmer John had
a young son
named Jehu.
who's leg was
crippled.

Farmer John had me take Jehu to Jerusalem to be healed. Elizabeth and Aunt Rebecca
came, too!

In Jerusalem, Stephan was said to perform miracles. Maybe he could fix Jehu's leg.

He did! Jehu felt God's power straighten his
crooked leg.

Jehu was overjoyed!

Saul had Stephan
put to death.

He took me and set off for Damascus, whipping me to go faster.

That night, in a
high mountain
pass, Saul was
blinded by Jesus!

Jesus told
him to stop
hurting Christians.

With Ollie's help, Saul found his way to Damascus, a changed man.
"Thank you, Ollie,"
he said, humbly.

With God's help, Ananias gave Saul his sight back.
Saul changed
his name to
Paul, and
vowed to
only do
good for
others.

Elizabeth and Aunt Rebecca came to Damascus to find me.
They overheard a
plan to kill Paul.

Paul and Rebecca hatched
a plan to sneak him
out of Damascus.

Elizabeth tied cloth on my hooves
so we could sneak out of the city
past the guards.

I carried Paul safely away from Damascus, to continue his work for Jesus.
