

coloring book cover

I'm Donkey Ollie. I lived on a farm with my three brothers.

Even though I was very small, my Aunt Alana told me
I was special.

One day, my brothers were
playing jump
rope.

They wouldn't let me play.

Instead, they tied me up and tossed me into the old well.

I couldn't climb out!
I yelled and yelled,
but nobody heard me!

James and Peter
came looking for
a white donkey.

Farmer John
thought of me.

But Farmer John
couldn't find
me anywhere!

He sent his daughter
Elizabeth
to find me.

“Ollie, what are you
doing down the old well?”
Elizabeth asked.

I was chosen
to carry Jesus into Jerusalem.

Everyone
cheered.
I guess
I was special!

When Jesus was killed for his beliefs, I was very sad.

I couldn't eat.

I couldn't sleep.

Jesus appeared to both me and Elizabeth.

“Death has no power over me!” he said.

Farmer John had a young son
named Jehu.
who's leg was
crippled.

Farmer John had me take Jehu to Jerusalem to be healed. Elizabeth and Aunt Rebecca came, too!

In Jerusalem, Stephan was said to perform miracles. Maybe he could fix Jehu's leg.

He did! Jehu felt God's power straighten his
crooked leg.

Jehu was overjoyed!

But Paul arrested Stephan
for working miracles.

Saul had Stephan
put to death.

He took me and set off for Damascus,
whipping me to go faster.

That night, in a
high mountain
pass, Saul
was blinded
by Jesus!

Jesus told
him to stop
hurting Christians.

With God's help, Ananias gave Saul his sight back.

Saul changed his name to Paul,
and vowed to
only do good
for others.

Elizabeth and Aunt Rebecca came to Damascus to find me. They overheard a plan to kill Paul.

Paul and Rebecca hatched
a plan to sneak him
out of Damascus.

Elizabeth tied cloth on my hooves
so we could sneak out of the city
past the guards.

Once outside,
Rebecca lowered
a basket with Paul inside onto
my back.

I carried Paul safely away
from Damascus, to continue his work for Jesus.

Farmer John planned to have Elizabeth marry Abner, who lived nearby.

Elizabeth and Jehu took the wool to market. My brothers and I carried the wool.

We ran into thieves who captured
all of the donkeys and
stole the wool.

